Dear Friends,

On November 14, 2009, the Polish American Congress will host its annual Radiothon on WNZK (690 AM) from 7:00 - 10 a.m. We rely on the generosity and dedication of our growing number of members and friends to continue our mission. We are asking for your help and generosity. Donors will be publicly acknowledged during the Radiothon. Another way to provide assistance is to remember the PAC in your will. May God bless you!

The PAC mission is to promote and preserve of Polish heritage and culture, provide bilingual assistance and referral services, award scholarships, and protect the good name of Americans of Polish descent.

We accomplish our mission in many ways:

- Inform and educate the general public and American politicians about Polonia and Poland's history and heritage.
- Monitor and prevent anti-Polish activities in public life and attempts to defame and humble Polonia and Poland.
- Act against falsifying the history and results of WWII.
- Educate Polonia about the criminal character of communism and its consequences for Poland and Polonia
- Provide immigration and social services to the community.
- Provide free legal services with specialized attorneys.
- Provide free health services: eye screenings, blood pressure, cholesterol and glucose checks.
- Provide citizenship preparation classes.
- Provide English and Polish languages classes.
- Sponsor PAC Scholarship Committee efforts which have awarded thousands of dollars to hundreds of local Polish American youths, enabling them to achieve their educational advancement.
- Assist the Charitable Foundation with embodiment of its mission.
- Reorganize Political Action Committee in order to strengthen Michigan Polonia influence on political agenda of local politicians.
- Cooperating with ALL Polonia groups and individuals who desire to empower Polonia and assist Poland.
